Senator Bristow charged President with inconsistency when he declared that he could not favor woman's suffrage because it was not included in the Democratic platform, yet asked Congress to repeal the Panama tolls, which his platform favored. "Greed of the railways and the claims of the British are more potent with Wilson than are our women," said Senator Bristow.

The Madonna's anchor chain was broken and she suffered injury to the top of her stem and stern and was unable to proceed to New York for which port she was to have departed today with a large number of emigrants. By Associated Press.

New York, February 18.—Among the remarkable stories told by passengers of the St. Columbia of the Anchor Line, and the Red Star Liner, Laplander, both of which reached port today, three days late, was the account of a large and brilliant meteor, which burned its way through the haze and snow and plunged flaming and hissing into the sea a short distance from the Laplander.

The Columbia brought in the lowest barometrical record ever known in the history of the Anchor Line and in the report of a terrific hurricane which tossed the vessel like a shell.

COSTELLO GIVES U.S. A PROBLEM

Washington, D. C., February 18.—Costello, the Mexican bandit, who wrecked Combe Tunnel and caused the death of several Americans furnishes the latest knot in the Mexican tangle with his capture by the United States. To keep him in the United States would be to permit his escape from crimes in Mexico. As he cannot be tried in this country for crimes committed across the Rio Grande. One way out of the difficulty is to allow the immigration authorities to put Costello back into Mexico as an undesirable alien. Costello would in all probability fall into the hands of General Villa, who promised him a public execution in Juarez.

COX OFF TO FLORIDA FOR REST

Emergency Clause Attached to the Measure Providing Flat Rates For Automobiles—Harmon Commissioners to Receive Compensation—Kramer Probe Committee Bill Amended and Put Through—Final Session.

Columbus, O., Feb. 18.—Before the extra session of the Eightieth General assembly gasped its last breath last night, Governor Cox had signed 44 bills and was celebrating the legislature's adjournment on a train bearing him to Florida. He expects to be gone two weeks.

The house voted to give each of its employes, from clerks down, five days' extra compensation. The senate was more generous and gave its employes 10 days' extra time.

The question of appropriating $7,500 for members of the Harmon commission which investigated industrial conditions for the purpose of enacting a workmen's compensation measure caused a wrangle. It was finally decided by both houses to award $1,200 each to the members of the commission, who were J. P. Smith, G. W. Perkins, J. H. Boyd, W. J. Rohr and W. J. Winans.

Rules were smashed by Speaker Swain to get votes enough to attach an emergency clause on the King bill fixing automobile fees at $2 for motorcycles, $3 for electrics and $5 for gasoline automobiles. Some opposition was occasioned by a desire to have the bill submitted to the people for referendum vote. The emergency clause was passed, 82 to 29. By amend-

TAX FERRETS USE AN ADDER

Preparing Personal Property List
For John D. Rockefeller.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 18.—Tax Commissioners Fackler and Agnew shut themselves up in their office with an adding machine, preparing a personal property tax list for John D. Rockefeller. "We are tabulating such information about Rockefeller's personal property as we collected so that when we get his tax return, if we do get it, we will be able to check upon it," said Fackler.

A provision in the 1914 tax laws, just discovered, gives tax collectors the power to list Rockefeller's $900,000,000 for each year beginning with 1911, and make him pay taxes on the entire amount, plus a 50 per cent penalty for failure to make a return each year.

The aggregate sum that Rockefeller could be taxed on then would be over $3,000,000,000. The $900,000,000 would be multiplied by the tax rate for each year and the penalty added, so that the total tax which might be assessed against Rockefeller would be nearly $35,000,000.

Ames, Iowa, Feb. 17.—Hog cholera in Iowa cost the farmers $33,000,000 in 1913. Nearly 3,000,000 hogs died of the disease and experts say this is nearly 35 per cent of the total number. The loss to Iowa farmers was two and one-half times as great as during 1912, despite the efforts of the state and federal government to stamp out the disease.

These estimates are based on reports from 1120 different men covering every community in every county in the state, as compiled by Director W. J. Kennedy of the State Agricultural college extension department.

Dr. C. H. Strange, director of the state serum laboratory gathered statistics which show that when healthy hogs were treated the loss after treatment was less than 2 1/3 per cent. When sick hogs were treated the loss was between sixteen and seventeen per cent. But in many sections of the state serious results followed the use of good virus and poor serum. Experts say that provision must be made for the thorough testing of all serum, under either state or federal authority, before it can be sold.

SPEEDY TROTTER IS TAKEN ILL

Springfield, O., Feb. 18.—Binville, the three-year-old trotter owned by Norman Minear of this city and shipped last Friday to New York City to be sold at auction is seriously ill, according to telegrams received yesterday from Tommy Clayton, the trainer. The first message said that the horse had just arrived and was suffering from what seemed to be lung fever. The second message said the horse had contracted pneumonia.

While on the trip East Dr. T. V. Smith, a veterinary of Washington C. H., accompanied the horses and was in constant attendance on Binville. The illness will likely prevent the horse from being offered in the sale which begins today.

ONE YEAR IN MEXICO

THEN.
Dispatches from Mexico City just a year ago today averred that February 18 was a day to be remembered in Mexican history. It saw the sudden rise of Gen. Victoriano Huerta from a long career as military commander to the head of the government. Generals who had been defending President Madero from the fire of revolutionists under Gen. Felix Diaz, gave way to intrigue, forced Madero's resignation and made him prisoner. He was later shot to death. A congress in the streets of the capital just a year ago tonight elected Huerta Provisional President.

NOW.
At the end of his first year in power Huerta's government is unrecognized by the United States. American, British, French and German warships are along his coasts watching conditions in his country. Revolutionists in the north under Generals Carranza and Villa have taken several of his strongholds, and now with access to arms from the United States they are moving south upon Torreon, with Mexico City as their ultimate objective. In the south the independent followers of General Zapata continue their uprisings. Huerta declares he has a loyal army of 150,000 men and reports continue that he may himself take the field against his enemies.

Essential Element in Advertisement

Students of the business of advertising are inclined to favor "iteration as the most essential element in the art of advertisement."

This view corresponds to that of the woman who didn't believe in nagging her husband, but felt it her duty to keep some things constantly before him.

So with the successful advertiser, he keeps his wares or his products or his merchandise so perpetually before the public that they are firmly planted in memory, and their value so impressed that the public mind becomes reciprocal to the suggestion.

The principal object of advertising is to make people remember.

A flaming, sensational advertisement, may attract passing attention and by its novelty draw some publicity, but it is the advertisement which crys over and over the superiority of its wares, until the ideas of place and article are so associated together in the mind that they become ineradicable, which is the paying advertisement.

It's nothing more than applying a leading principle of psychology to advertising methods.

The majority of minds are receptive to the oft reiterated statement, and a well heralded trade mark is a very valuable business asset.

Certain words have become so associated with brands that they identify products to the immense profit of the corporation.

It is said that every bull in the country has become an advertisement for a well known smoking tobacco, and "It Floats" is synonymous with ivory soap. "Uneeda" is a whole advertisement in itself.

Any claim founded on merit, set forth by the advertiser repeatedly for his stocks and kept intensively before the public, is bound to have its effect.

It is the thing that people read over and over that sticks in memory.

An Epigram of Pessimism

"How tame life gets after you've lived it any length of time."

A Kentucky authoress, favored by many whose names are found in New York's social and literary registers, and especially well known in recent years by the narrow little ghetto world, and the "Ragged Edgers", as the founder and spirit of the "Ragged Edge Club", leaves behind her an epigram of such jaded pessimism. It seems incredible that Zoe Anderson Norris, "the Queen of Bohemia," the publisher of Zoe's magazine, with so many phases of life passing before her in kaleidoscopic review, with access to people of stimulating interest and to the immense opportunities of New York's multiple activities, in touch with the world of the East Side, with its constantly recurring human interest stories should ever find life "tame".

The hard lot and pathos of hundreds of lives in the little ghetto world; the shattered hopes and disillusion of those higher up, might arouse heartache and regret, the impossibility of attaining ambitions, of accomplishing things ardently desired, might cause hopelessness or even bitterness.

But to call life "tame" is to write into the autobiography of the dead woman a suggestion of selfishness, of blase interests, of deadened sympathies, that cannot but leave the displeasing odor of withered blossoms rather than the sweet perfume of radiant bloom.

"Life tame!" with its seething interests, alive and varied as never in any age; life, with its splendid opportunities, its multiple pleasures; its limitless vocations! Of all the words in the dictionary the word "tame" seems to qualify it the poorest!

Proposed to "Shut Out Illiterates Because They Are Immigrants"

By CYRUS L. SULZBERGER, New York Philanthropist

I THINK THAT THE LITERACY TEST FOR IMMIGRANTS IS A SHAM AND A FRAUD, BECAUSE IT IS NOT WHAT IT PURPORTS TO BE. ITS OBJECT IS NOT TO SHUT OUT IMMIGRANTS BECAUSE THEY ARE ILLITERATE. ILLITERACY IS A DEFECT WHICH CAN BE REMEDIED. ITS OBJECT REALLY IS TO SHUT OUT ILLITERATES BECAUSE THEY ARE IMMIGRANTS. AND IF THE ADVOCATES OF THIS MEASURE KNEW ANY OTHER WAY BY WHICH THEY COULD SHUT OUT AN EQUAL NUMBER OF IMMIGRANTS THEY WOULD NOT HESITATE TO RESORT TO IT.

The arguments against this proposal have been so well stated by President Cleveland, President Taft, Secretary Nagel and President Wilson that no further argument upon this subject should be necessary. It is President Wilson who said:

Poetry For Today

THE FUTURE.
If only we could see what lies ahead,
If we might look beyond tomorrow's portals,
I wonder if we should, absolved from dread,
Be happy-visaged and contented mortals?
Would all the hate and heartaches disappear,
Would glee blot out all memories of sorrow—
Would courage come to take the place of fear,
If we could see what lies beyond tomorrow?

If we could know what destinies the fates
Are shaping now for us who blindly blunder
And oft in vain assail forbidden gates
How would the knowledge profit us, I wonder?
Would failure cease to break the hearts of men?
Would night's deep, silent darkness lose its terror?
Would he who ought to write lay down the pen?
Would all who stumble cease to grope in error?

We know that right is right, that wrong is wrong;
That thus it was ordained at time's beginning.

We know that honors to the wise belong,

That sorrow is the heavy price of sinning.

Yet foolishly we sin and venture where

The currents, soon or late, will drag us under;

If somehow all the future were laid bare

How would the knowledge profit us I wonder?

—Ellen Wilson in American Agriculturist.

PLOT TO RUIN GORE CHARGED

Jennings and Others Accused By Senator's Counsel.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 18.—Charges that Al Jennings, candidate for governor of Oklahoma on the Democratic ticket, and J. F. McMurray, Indian attorney by contract, both bitter enemies of Senator T. P. Gore, are behind the plot to ruin the blind senator politically by encouraging the $50,000 damage suit of Mrs. Minnie Bond, were made by Attorney Pruitt, leading counsel for Gore.

"This diabolical plot to besmirch the name of Senator Gore was planned in the room of J. F. McMurray, in the Ebbett hotel in Washington," shouted Pruitt, "and Al Jennings, the outlaw, was in that room with McMurray, Robertson, Jacobs and Fitzpatrick."

Court proceedings were interrupted several minutes by a demonstration

Pruitt stated that a certain man's en-

PRESSING VILLA

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 18.—Heavy guards have been posted in Juarez around the house at which Pancho Villa is staying and all automobiles and pedestrians passing the temporary home of the rebel leader are stopped after night. The cause of this sudden vigilance is the disclosure of a plot, according to friends of Villa, to have him assassinated. The report says that rich Mexican refugees on this side of the river, who want Villa out of the way, have offered $150,000 gold for his assassination.

CONVICT GETS DOUBLE DOSE

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 18.—James Schrumm, serving a 99-year sentence in the penitentiary for murder in the first degree, was sentenced by the supreme court to be hanged April 3 for a second murder. The case is without a parallel in the history of Missouri. June 22, 1912, Schrumm shot and killed Mont Hall and Jen Gibson in St. Francis county. He was first tried for the murder of Gibson, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. He next was tried for the murder of Hall, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death. Following the first conviction he was brought to the penitentiary.

The wife and daughter of Schrumm had called at their home while Schrumm and his son Harvey were absent, and insulted and frightened them badly. The double tragedy followed.

INTEREST IN CAMPAIGN TAKES A DECIDED JUMP

Greatly Increased Number of Workers Assemble for Luncheon, and While Only Few Hundred Dollars Are Reported, Some of the Committee Evidently Had Snug Sums to Report in Day or Two.

Interest in the Y. M. C. A. clean-up campaign is on the increase. This was manifested by the increased attendance at the noonday luncheon, where nearly all tables were filled up by the workers, who prepared their reports while dining.

When the reports were made the total was several hundred dollars, but it was evident that some of the larger subscriptions were being held back for a day or two, and within the next two or three days there is expected to be a big jump in the figures.

More than one captain had a smile upon his face during the time the reports were being made, and some good reports are expected to be the Y. M. C. A.

WASHINGTON'S OLDEST CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Mr. George Bryan, Sr., known by everybody in this community, and having the distinction of being the oldest male resident of our city, passed quietly to his eternal rest Wednesday morning at five o'clock, at the Bryan home on North North street.

Over two years ago Mr. Bryan suffered a stroke of paralysis and has since been in poor health, only immense vitality and the most devoted care of his family enabling him to attain his advanced age of 85 years. He came of a long-lived family, having two sisters, both octogenarians, Mrs. B. F. Jacobs, of Parrets, 88 years old, and Mrs. Wm. Smith, of this city, 80 years old, who survive him.

He leaves an aged wife and seven children, who were all with him as, after much suffering, he crossed the bar in perfect peace. If Mr. Bryan had lived until Christmas he and his wife would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Bryan was born in Laurel, Delaware, coming to this city when only 5 years of age. Since then, until he retired two years ago, he engaged in his trade of shoe-making. He was a staunch Democrat all his life.

The funeral services will be private and held Friday morning at the residence. Rev. F. E. Ross and Rev. Bowman Hostetler will conduct the M. E. Episcopal service.

The interment will be made in the family lot by the side of Mr. Bryan's parents in the Washington cemetery.

Any friends who desire to see the remains can call at the residence Thursday afternoon or evening.

ORDERED TO GET OUT OF THE CITY

Homer Bryant, colored, was arrested late Tuesday afternoon upon a warrant charging him with intoxication. This was issued upon an affidavit made by his sister, Mrs. Pearl Harris, and Chief Moore and Patrolman Bell made the arrest.

After spending the night in the county jail, Bryant was arraigned before Mayor Coffey Wednesday morning, and upon his plea of guilty, he was fined $5 and the costs and ordered to get out of the city and stay out.

DEATH ENDS SUFFERING AFTER NINE LONG YEARS

Mrs. Mary Moore, Mother of Mr. Lewis Moore, Responds to Summons of Death Angel at Age of Ninety-one—Funeral Services Tomorrow Afternoon at White Oak Church.

Fayette county is fast losing the pioneer women, who have so helped to mould the sturdy manhood and gentle womanhood, which is now the bone and sinew of present conditions, and one of the oldest of these fine pioneer women, Mrs. Mary S. Moore, who made her home with her son, Mr. Lewis Moore, near Buena Vista, answered the eternal summons Wednesday noon. Although the coming of the death angel had been expected, she slept away so quietly that her passing came as a shock to those around her.

Ever since the death of her husband, 21 years ago, Mrs. Moore made her home with her son, Mr. Lewis Moore, whose devotion to her in her long illness, has been most beautiful and has involved constant personal care which few men would have been equal to giving.

Two other children mourn her loss.

Mr. George Moore, of the Anderson

pike, and Mr. Salisbury Moore, of Leesburg, and one daughter and one son are dead.

The funeral cortège will form at the home of Mr. Lewis Moore at one o'clock Thursday afternoon, and funeral services held at 2 o'clock at the White Oak church, of which Mrs. Moore was a member.

The interment will be in the family lot in the White Oak cemetery. Rev. T. M. Ricketts, of Staunton, will conduct the services.

HOUSEMAN.

The young wife of W. B. Houseman, Mrs. Inez Housman, died Wednesday at 9 a. m. at her home near Cooks Station.

The remains will be brought from her home to the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Clark Mershon, on North North street.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MARCHANT.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia Marchant will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 at Friends church, New Martinsburg. Burial in Walnut Creek cemetery.

JOHN SANDERS PASSES AWAY

John Sanders, 45, died Tuesday evening at 6:30 at the residence of M. L. Himiller, on the Chillicothe pike, after suffering a short time with an abscess of the liver.

The deceased has many friends in this city and county, and has spent most of his life in the neighborhood in which he died.

Funeral service Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, sun time, at the residence. Burial in the Good Hope cemetery.

Coloring an Abyssinian Bride.
Western brides have an easier time than their Abyssinian sisters. On the occasion of her marriage an Abyssinian bride has to change her skin. From ebony she has to become the color of cafe au lait. To accomplish this the expectant bride is shut up in a room for three months. She is covered with woolen stuff, with the exception of her head. Then they burn certain green and fragrant branches. The fumes which they produce destroy the original skin, and in its place comes the new skin, soft and clear as a baby's.

The Wickedest Bit of Sea.

Nine out of ten travelers would tell inquirers that the roughest piece of water is that cruel stretch in the English channel, and nine out of ten travelers would say what was not true. As a matter of fact, "the wickedest bit of sea" is not in the Dover strait or in yachting, for example, from St. Jean de Luz up to Panillac or across the Mediterranean "race" from Cadiz to Tangier, nor is it in rounding Cape Horn, where there is what sailors call a "true" sea.

The "wickedest sea" is encountered in rounding the Cape of Good Hope for the eastern portion of Cape Colony—London Globe.

His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Belle Putman of Frankfort, where she is a leader in the social set."

The bride is a beautiful girl, well known in Washington circles and her marriage will elicit good wishes from many friends in this city.

Miss Swope, who was appointed secretary for the remainder of the year, gave the minutes of last meeting. Mrs. Carpenter presented a letter from Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, president of the National Federation. She urged the desirability of all the clubs becoming members of the National with a membership of nearly one million, and with a strong and growing interest and force in both public and private life, it aids to broaden the horizon in club work and in the larger field for the accomplishment of a greater good. The club will consider the matter later.

Mrs. Morna Chapman took charge of the department program and welcomed the Cecilian quartet, Mesdames Hughey, Davis, Burgett and Pine, who gave the beautiful choral, "Lake of the Dismal Swamp". The poem is written by Thomas More and the music by Matthews, is weird and plaintive, with the minor key so common in Indian music, often recurring.

Mrs. Nina Craig gave the interpretation and Mrs. Murray was accompanist. Miss Edith Gardner gave a charming solo, "What the Chimney Sung". Miss Light, accompanist, and Mrs. Carpenter added much pleasure to the evening in her beautiful reading of "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." Mrs. Murray playing a musical accompaniment.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the Cecilians.

The marriage of Miss Madge Putnam, of Frankfort, and Dr. E. W. Breyfogle, of Chillicothe, is recorded in Tuesday's Scioto Gazette, of Chillicothe, as follows:

"Miss Madge Putnam and Dr. E. W. Breyfogle, in whose nuptials much interest has been manifested by their many friends, had an extremely quiet wedding Thursday afternoon. They were married at 4:30 o'clock in the Trinity M. E. church parsonage by Rev. Arthur Cherrington, whose mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cherrington, and Mr. Albert Schlegel, witnessed the ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. Breyfogle left shortly after on the N. & W. for Columbus, leaving there this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, on a two weeks honeymoon trip to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. At Boston they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Elliot, the latter having been Miss Mary Tinker, formerly of this city and Frankfort.

After February 28, Dr. and Mrs. Breyfogle will be at home at the Hayes hotel, where they will reside until spring. The doctor, who has been located here for four years, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Breyfogle, prominent residents of Mt.

LITERACY TEST STAYS IN BILL

Senate Immigration Committee
Will Hazard the Veto.

MEMBERS DISCUSS SITUATION

Disposition Shown to Criticise Chairman Smith, Who Says He Received Information That While the President Did Not Like the Literacy Test, He Would Not Veto the Immigration Bill.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The senate committee on immigration has been disturbed by the unexpected announcement semi-officially that the president will veto the immigration bill if it goes to him containing the literacy test.

There is some disposition among senators to criticize Senator Ellison B. Smith, chairman of the senate committee on immigration, because, it is now contended, he did not attach sufficient importance to the president's views of the literacy feature at the time he conferred with the president concerning the bill.

Chairman Smith said that the president was not pleased with the literacy test in the house bill, but that he would not veto the bill on that account.

There were several conferences later between Chairman Smith and his colleagues on the committee. Senator Dillingham of Vermont, ranking Republican member of the committee and former chairman, was very much surprised at the information from the White House that the president would veto the bill if passed in its present form. He had a talk with Chairman Smith, who insisted that he received the information at his conference with the president that while the president did not like the literacy test, he would not veto the bill on that account.

The president does not consider literacy a test of character, and believes some other means should be devised to prevent undesirable aliens from entering the United States. He told callers that he had given his view to the senate committee and had left it to them to make it public or not, as they chose.

Several members of the committee declare the literacy test will be retained in the bill, notwithstanding prospects of presidential veto.

Tolls Question Causes Friction.

That out of President Wilson's stand in favor of repealing the law exempting coastwise vessels from payment of Panama canal tolls may come the first disagreement between him and his party in congress is indicated here. There is decided opposition in the house to repealing the exemption clause of the canal act. The president will be informed of the situation this afternoon, when he is to have a conference with Representative Underwood, majority leader of the house.

Mr. Underwood, while he has not publicly announced his position, is known to be in favor of the exemption clause as it stands. He has given assurances, however, that he will not oppose the president in the matter of the repeal, but at the same time has indicated that he feels that congress ought not to be expected to reverse its previous action and abrogate a plank in the Baltimore platform until the president has made a clear statement why he wishes the exemption clause repealed.

MAY DELIVER BANDIT TO VILLA

Washington, Feb. 18.—That Maximo Castillo, the Mexican bandit chief, held responsible for the death of 14 Americans on board a train wrecked in the Cumbre tunnel in Chihuahua, may be delivered to General Villa or his authorities, is regarded as probable in view of the intimations that have been given at the state department. Secretary Bryan asked General Villa to capture and punish Castillo for his part in burning trains in the Cumbre tunnel.

SUES GAS COMPANY

Newark, O., Feb. 18.—Phil E. Smythe, former prosecuting attorney, filed suit for alleged damages against the Newark Gas and Fuel company. He declares that from Feb. 8 to 16 the company failed to supply sufficient gas to heat his home or properly prepare his meals and that the gas shortage is responsible for an attack of rheumatism.

SHOOTS HIMSELF

Columbus, O., Feb. 18.—On the pretext of wanting a drink, Leo Musselman, 26, sent his brother down stairs in a local hotel and while he was out of the room shot himself through the chest with a 38-caliber revolver. Physicians at St. Francis hospital do not think he can recover. No reason is given for the attempt at suicide.

$2000 APPENDIX

Dayton, O., Feb. 18.—The value of Henry Schermuly's appendix was fixed at $2,600 by the jury that passed upon the damage suit he brought jointly against the Dayton & Xenia and Ohio Electric traction companies on account of injuries he received as the result of a collision between two cars of the respective lines.

UPHOLDS BIBLE

"What are the ten greatest inventions of our time?" asked a scientific journal recently. And all this was accomplished in a quarter century. Power asks, Can you name off hand seven of the inventors?

The annual report of the Treasurer of Oberlin College shows that the endowment funds and other assets amount to $2,606,080. The estimated value of buildings and equipment is $1,571,788; the aggregate of endowments, buildings and equipment is $4,207,868. During the year just closed the investments of the college yielded the average rate of 5 per cent. The total income exclusive of gifts for new buildings and endowment was $342,764.

Oberlin will add over $196,500 in equipment and improvements within a year. A new Administration Building, erected at the cost of $69,000 as a memorial to Jacob B. Cox of Cincinnati, is well under way. $125,000 is on hand for a new art building, plans for which are now being inspected by the Trustees. Another outlay is that of $2,500 a year for five years, given by Charles H. Hall of Buffalo, to beautify the campus.

WILSON DENIES MAIL HELD UP

Washington, Feb. 18.—President Wilson has written a letter warmly defending Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, against reports that have been circulated in some Protestant quarters to the effect that it is impossible to get communications relating to the activities of the Roman Catholic church by Mr. Tumulty to the president's own desk. The president brands any such impression as "absurd and absolutely false," and pays Mr. Tumulty a high compliment for his efficiency and impartiality in all matters.

CASTILLO AND GANG NOW UNDER ARREST

Bandit Chief Seized By United States Troops.CLOSELY PRESSED BY REBELS

Preferred Flight Into American Territory Rather Than Capture at the Hands of Villa's Men—Outlaw Chief Denies Responsibility For the Cumbre Tunnel Horror and Claims He's Not a Bandit.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 18.—Maximo Castillo is a prisoner of the Ninth United States cavalry in New Mexico. The arrest of the bandit and six of his men was reported from the Alamo Nuevo wireless tower of the United States to the commanding officer of the Ninth cavalry at Hatchita, N. M.

The capture of the bandits took place near Alamo Nuevo ranch, west of El Paso, on the New Mexican line, after the bandits had crossed into New Mexico. Closely pressed by the Mexican troops to the border, as a last resort Castillo, like others before him, chose flight into American territory rather than capture at the hands of the rebels. The rest of the bandit band is reported to be on American soil near Dog Springs, N. M., which is just north of that point of Palomas ranch in Mexico where the band spent Monday night.

A troop of cavalry was sent from Hatchita to effect their arrest. Lieutenant Rothwell, in command of a detachment of Troop A, Ninth cavalry (negro), made the arrest of the Castillo band. The leader was identified, the lieutenant reported in his message, by several ranchmen in that section well acquainted with Castillo.

Castillo was reported last week as captured by Villa's men, and the day following he was reported executed by them, but General Villa himself never had official confirmation and refused "to believe the goods." When told that the United States had made Castillo a prisoner Villa said: "If the United States will turn him over to me they will be relieved of the expense of feeding him."

A letter from Castillo, written last week, reached El Paso, in which he denies responsibility for the Cumbre tunnel disaster, in which 51 people were killed, and asserts that he is not a bandit, but the military commander of the Zapatista cause in northern Mexico and has never harmed a foreigner nor even a prisoner.

VIEWS OF OTHERSTHE GORE CASE.

The claim of United States Senator Thos. P. Gore that the charges made against him by Minnie Bond are the result of a conspiracy to discredit him politically should be thoroughly investigated. No penalty is too severe for assassins of character and any charges made against public men should be the subjects for a thorough and searching probe.

In spite of what the pessimists say the most valuable possession of any man can stand before men, and be acclaimed as honest, capable and honorable, his life has been a success even though he has failed to amass great sums of money or to reach the high places in the land. Conversely, if he gains his millions or reaches his places of pride and power at the cost of his honor and reputation, he is a failure and his name will go down with his death disgraced and a byword of reproach.

Senator Gore has reached the heights and his record is thus far clean and unspotted. Blind, he has accomplished that which more fortunate men have struggled for in vain. His place, however, is sought by the ambitious and it is within the bounds of reason that such a plot as he alleges was formed against him.

The charges made by the woman and the claims of the senator should be given a thorough airing. The laws prescribe a punishment if Gore is the monster which the woman pictures him. The civil courts and the criminal statutes both provide means of redress and punishment, and if the senator is guilty, he should be punished.

If the charges are a plot to discredit him, every person involved in it, from the woman who gave herself as the tool to the crafty politician who would profit by her act, should be punished and disgraced. America has no place for the liar, the traitor and the conspirator, and such plots savor more of the old world than of the new. The frame-up of the police of the big cities should not be permitted to extend its coils further, and a thorough probing and prompt action in the Gore case may prevent rank injustice being done in the future.—Springfield Sun.

KEIFER RETURNS FROM NEW YORK

Springfield, O., Feb. 18.—After attending a conference at New York held for issuance of a formal call for a third national peace conference at The Hague in 1915, General J. Warren Keifer, returned to Springfield yesterday.

The Hague Peace conference is entirely separate from the International Union of Peace at which General Keifer represented the United States at Brussels in 1910.

At the head of the committee are Andrew D. White and Joseph H. Choate, chairman respectively of the American delegations to the first and second Hague conferences.

This conference will be the first called by the United States. The first, held in 1899, was called by the Czar of Russia. President Roosevelt in 1907 was expected to call the second Hague conference but let Russia again have the honor upon special request of the Czar, following conclusion of the Russian-Japanese war.

CLAIMS THOMPSON SCARED WITNESSES

New York, Feb. 18.—Charges that Assistant United States District Attorney Claude A. Thompson intimidated and kept out of the country material witnesses, are the basis for a motion for a new trial in the case of Albert Freeman, who with Julian Hawthorn and Dr. William J. Morton, was convicted on March 14, 1913, of using the mails to defraud. Freeman is out on bail of $150,000 pending an appeal in his case. Affidavits set forth allegations that Thompson scared Joseph McNulty, Dr. Robert Bell and Professor R. C. Harris into absence and silence by threatening to have them indicted as equally guilty with Freeman, Hawthorn and Morton in persuading the unwary to invest their money in mining properties of no value.

Senator Gore has reached the heights and his record is thus far clean and unspotted. Blind, he has accomplished that which more fortunate men have struggled for in vain. His place, however, is sought by the ambitious and it is within the bounds of reason that such a plot as he alleges was formed against him.

ANNUAL INSPECTION PYTHIAN SISTERS

Tuesday night witnessed the annual inspection of the Washington Temple No. 380, of the Pythian Sisters at the K. of P. Castle.

There was a large attendance and the occasion was of marked interest and pleasure.

Mrs. Lillian Howard, District Deputy Grand Chief, of Lancaster, acted as inspecting officer, and the fact that the exceptionally high grade of 95 was given to the entire exemplification of the work spoke beyond words of its excellence.

Several new features, especially satisfactory, were incorporated.

Mrs. John Wilson, Past Chief substituted for Margaret DeWees, most excellent chief, in filling the chair for the evening's work. The initiatory work was put on under the initiation staff, in charge of Mrs. Jesse Blackmore, Past Chief.

Three new candidates, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hyer and Miss Ruth Richardson, took the work.

Hearty approval was given to the work of the Degree Staff under its captain, Miss Emma Wilson.

An elegant two course banquet was served in the banquet hall at the close of the evening.

REFUSED 15C FARE PAYS $15.60 FINE

A colored man who works for a Selden farmer was in this city a day or two ago and before he left for home on the evening train he became intoxicated. He later boarded the train for home.

The conductor said nothing, but carried the man to Sabine where an officer placed him under arrest and before the old colored man got out of his trouble he was forced to pay a fine of $15.60 for his little ride.

By Associated Press.

Oklahoma City, Okla., February 18.—The charge that J. F. McMurray, an Oklahoma lawyer, now living in Washington, D. C., planned a conspiracy against Thomas A. Senator Bristow charged President with inconsistency when he declared that he could not favor woman's suffrage because it was not included in the Democratic platform, yet asked Congress to repeal the Panama tolls, which his platform favored. COSTELLO GIVES U. S. A PROBLEM

Washington, D. C., February 18.—Costello, the Mexican bandit, who wrecked Combe Tunnell and caused the death of several Americans furnishes the latest knot in the Mexican tangle with his capture by the United States. To keep him in the United States would be to permit his escape from crimes in Mexico. As he cannot be tried in this country for crimes committed across the Rio Grande. One way out of the difficulty is to allow the immigration authorities to put Costello back into Mexico as an undesirable alien. Costello would in all probability fall into the hands of General Villa, who promised him a public execution in Juarez.

Emergency Clause Attached to the Columbus, O., Feb. 18.—Before the extra session of the Eightieth General assembly gasped its last breath last night, Governor Cox had signed 44 bills and was celebrating the legislature's adjournment on a train bearing him to Florida. He expects to be gone two weeks.

The house voted to give each of its employees, from clerks down, five days' extra compensation. The senate was more generous and gave its employees 10 days' extra time.

The question of appropriating $7,500 for members of the Harmon commission which investigated industrial conditions for the purpose of enacting a workmen's compensation measure caused a wrangle. It was finally decided by both houses to award $1,200 each to the members of the commission, who were J. P. Smith, G. W. Perks, J. H. Boyd, W. J. Rohr and W. J. Winans.

Rules were smashed by Speaker Swain to get votes enough to attach an emergency clause on the King bill fixing automobile fees at $2 for motorcycles, $3 for electrics and $5 for gasoline automobiles. Some opposition was occasioned by a desire to have the bill submitted to the people for referendum vote. The emergency clause was passed, $2 to 29. By amend-

TAX FERRETS USE AN ADDER

Preparing Personal Property List
For John D. Rockefeller.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 18.—Tax Commissioners Fackler and Agnew shut themselves up in their office with an adding machine, preparing a personal property tax list for John D. Rockefeller. "We are tabulating such information about Rockefeller's personal property as we collected so that when we get his tax return, if we do get it, we will be able to check up on it," said Fackler.

A provision in the 1914 tax laws, just discovered, gives tax collectors the power to list Rockefeller's $900,000,000 for each year beginning with 1911, and make him pay taxes on the entire amount, plus a 50 per cent penalty for failure to make a return each year.

The aggregate sum that Rockefeller could be taxed on then would be over $3,000,000,000. The $900,000,000 would be multiplied by the tax rate for each year and the penalty added, so that the total tax which might be assessed against Rockefeller would be nearly $35,000,000.

CHOLERA COSTS
IOWA $33,000,000

Ames, Iowa, Feb. 17.—Hog cholera in Iowa cost the farmers $33,000,000 in 1913. Nearly 3,000,000 hogs died of the disease and experts say this is nearly 35 per cent of the total number. The loss to Iowa farmers was two and one-half times as great as during 1912, despite the efforts of the state and federal government to stamp out the disease.

These estimates are based on reports from 1120 different men covering every community in every county in the state, as compiled by Director W. J. Kennedy of the State Agricultural college extension department.

"Owing to a severe cough and lung trouble I could not work at all for several months," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio. "Two of the best doctors could not help me. My weight ran down to 115 pounds. Dr. King's New Discovery cured me, and I now weigh 160 pounds."

ONE YEAR IN MEXICO

THEN.

Dispatches from Mexico City just a year ago today averred that February 18 was a day to be remembered in Mexican history. It saw the sudden rise of Gen. Victoriano Huerta from a long career as military commander to the head of the government. Generals who had been defending President Madero from the fire of revolutionists under Gen. Felix Diaz, gave way to intrigue, forced Madero's resignation and made him prisoner. He was later shot to death. A congress in the streets of the capital just a year ago tonight elected Huerta Provisional President.

NOW.

At the end of his first year in power Huerta's government is unrecognized by the United States. American, British, French and German warships are along his coasts watching conditions in his country. Revolutionists in the north under Generals Carranza and Villa have taken several of his strongholds, and now with access to arms from the United States they are moving south upon Torreon, with Mexico City as their ultimate objective. In the south the independent followers of General Zapata continue their uprisings. Huerta declares he has a loyal army of 150,000 men and reports continue that he may himself take the field against his enemies.

Essential Element in Advertisement

Students of the business of advertising are inclined to favor "iteration as the most essential element in the art of advertisement."

This view corresponds to that of the woman who didn't believe in nagging her husband, but felt it her duty to keep some things constantly before him.

So with the successful advertiser, he keeps his wares or his products or his merchandise so perpetually before the public that they are firmly planted in memory, and their value so impressed that the public mind becomes reciprocal to the suggestion.

The principal object of advertising is to make people remember.

A flaming, sensational advertisement, may attract passing attention and by its novelty draw some publicity, but it is the advertisement which crys over and over the superiority of its wares, until the ideas of place and article are so associated together in the mind that they become ineradicable, which is the paying advertisement.

It's nothing more than applying a leading principle of psychology to advertising methods.

The majority of minds are receptive to the oft reiterated statement, and a well heralded trade mark is a very valuable business asset.

Certain words have become so associated with brands that they identify products to the immense profit of the corporation.

It is said that every bull in the country has become an advertisement for a well known smoking tobacco, and "It Floats" is synonymous with ivory soap. "Uneeda" is a whole advertisement in itself.

Any claim founded on merit, set forth by the advertiser repeatedly for his stocks and kept intensively before the public, is bound to have its effect.

It is the thing that people read over and over that sticks in memory.

An Epigram of Pessimism

"How tame life gets after you've lived it any length of time."

A Kentucky authoress, favored by many whose names are found in New York's social and literary registers, and especially well known in recent years by the narrow little ghetto world, and the "Ragged Edgers", as the founder and spirit of the "Ragged Edge Club", leaves behind her an epigram of such jaded pessimism. It seems incredible that Zoe Anderson Norris, "the Queen of Bohemia," the publisher of Zoe's magazine, with so many phases of life passing before her in kaleidoscopic review, with access to people of stimulating interest and to the immense opportunities of New York's multiple activities, in touch with the world of the East Side, with its constantly recurring human interest stories should ever find life "tame".

The hard lot and pathos of hundreds of lives in the little ghetto world; the shattered hopes and disillusion of those higher up, might arouse heartache and regret, the impossibility of attaining ambitions, of accomplishing things ardently desired, might cause hopelessness or even bitterness.

But to call life "tame" is to write into the autobiography of the dead woman a suggestion of selfishness, of blasé interests, of deadened sympathies, that cannot but leave the displeasing odor of withered blossoms rather than the sweet perfume of radiant bloom.

"Life tame!" with its seething interests, alive and varied as never in any age; life, with its splendid opportunities, its multiple pleasures; its limitless vocations! Of all the words in the dictionary the word "tame" seems to qualify it the poorest!

Proposed to "Shut Out Illiterates Because They Are Immigrants"

By CYRUS L. SULZBERGER, New York Philanthropist

THINK THAT THE LITERACY TEST FOR IMMIGRANTS IS A SHAM AND A FRAUD, BECAUSE IT IS NOT WHAT IT PURPORTS TO BE. ITS OBJECT IS NOT TO SHUT OUT IMMIGRANTS BECAUSE THEY ARE ILLITERATE. ILLITERACY IS A DEFECT WHICH CAN BE REMEDIED. ITS OBJECT REALLY IS TO SHUT OUT ILLITERATES BECAUSE THEY ARE IMMIGRANTS. AND IF THE ADVOCATES OF THIS MEASURE KNEW ANY OTHER WAY BY WHICH THEY COULD SHUT OUT AN EQUAL NUMBER OF IMMIGRANTS THEY WOULD NOT HESITATE TO RESORT TO IT.

The arguments against this proposal have been so well stated by President Cleveland, President Taft, Secretary Nagel and President Wilson that no further argument upon this subject should be necessary. It is President Wilson who said:

"I THINK THAT THIS COUNTRY CAN AFFORD TO USE AND OUGHT TO GIVE OPPORTUNITY TO EVERY MAN AND WOMAN OF SOUND MORALS, SOUND MIND AND SOUND BODY WHO COMES IN GOOD FAITH TO SPEND HIS OR HER ENERGIES IN OUR LIFE, AND I SHOULD CERTAINLY BE INCLINED, SO FAR AS I AM CONCERNED, TO SCRUTINIZE VERY JEALOUSLY ANY RESTRICTIONS THAT WOULD LIMIT THAT PRINCIPLE IN PRACTICE."

Poetry For Today

THE FUTURE.
If only we could see what lies ahead,
If we might look beyond tomorrow's portals,
I wonder if we should, absolved from dread,
Be happy-visaged and contented mortals?
Would all the hate and heartaches disappear,
Would glee blot out all memories of sorrow—
Would courage come to take the place of fear,
If we could see what lies beyond tomorrow?

If we could know what destinies the fates
Are shaping now for us who blindly blunder
And oft in vain assail forbidden gates
How would the knowledge profit us, I wonder?
Would failure cease to break the hearts of men?
Would night's deep, silent darkness lose its terror?
Would he who ought to write lay down the pen?
Would all who stumble cease to grope in error?

We know that right is right, that wrong is wrong;
That thus it was ordained at time's beginning.
We know that honors to the wise belong,
That sorrow is the heavy price of sinning.

Yet foolishly we sin and venture where
The currents, soon or late, will drag us under;
If somehow all the future were laid bare
How would the knowledge profit us I wonder?

PLOT TO RUIN GORE CHARGED

Jennings and Others Accused By Senator's Counsel.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 18.—Charges that Al Jennings, candidate for governor of Oklahoma on the Democratic ticket, and J. F. McMurray, Indian attorney by contract, both bitter enemies of Senator T. P. Gore, are behind the plot to ruin the blind senator politically by encouraging the $50,000 damage suit of Mrs. Minnie Bond, were made by Attorney Pruitt, leading counsel for Gore.

"This diabolical plot to besmirch the name of Senator Gore was planned in the room of J. F. McMurray, in the Ebbett hotel in Washington," shouted Pruitt, "and Al Jennings, the outlaw, was in that room with McMurray, Robertson, Jacobs and Fitzpatrick."

Court proceedings were interrupted several minutes by a demonstration on the part of the spectators when Pruitt stated that a certain man's enmity for Senator Gore was prompted by Gore's fight on a big eastern Oklahoma Indian graft. When he made this statement Pruitt mentioned no names.

At the conclusion of Pruitt's argument Mrs. Gore burst into tears. This is the first time she has shown any emotion during the trial.

Roseville, O., Feb. 18.—H. U. G. Weaver, prominent prohibition worker and one of the best-known citizens of Muskingum county, died here following a 10 days' illness from septic poisoning caused by erysipelas. He was also prominent in Methodist church work and led the choir here for 30 years.

INSTANTLY KILLED

Steubenville, O., Feb. 18.—A quantity of dynamite in a shanty at the ore trestle of the La Belle iron works exploded, damaging the trestle and destroying the shanty. George Milovic, who was near by, was instantly killed. Roda Tepovic and George Radosovich were seriously injured.

PRESSING VILLA

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 18.—Heavy guards have been posted in Juarez around the house at which Pancho Villa is staying and all automobiles and pedestrians passing the temporary home of the rebel leader are stopped after night. The cause of this sudden vigilance is the disclosure of a plot, according to friends of Villa, to have him assassinated. The report says that rich Mexican refugees on this side of the river, who want Villa out of the way, have offered $150,000 gold for his assassination.

Colonel Roosevelt's popularity is due in some degree to his facility in providing new backgrounds for himself.

CONVICT GETS DOUBLE DOSE

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 18.—James Schrum, serving a 99-year sentence in the penitentiary for murder in the first degree, was sentenced by the supreme court to be hanged April 3 for a second murder. The case is without a parallel in the history of Missouri. June 22, 1912, Schrum shot and killed Mont Hall and Jent Gibson in St. Francis county. He was first tried for the murder of Hall, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. He next was tried for the murder of Hall, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death. Following the first conviction he was brought to the penitentiary.

The wife and daughter of Schrum claimed that Gibson and Hall had called at their home while Schrum and his son Harvey were absent, and insulted and frightened them badly. The double tragedy followed.

INTEREST IN CAMPAIGN TAKES A DECIDED JUMP

Greatly Increased Number of Workers Assemble for Luncheon, and While Only Few Hundred Dollars Are Reported, Some of the Committee Evidently Had Snug Sums to Report in Day or Two.

Interest in the Y. M. C. A. clean-up campaign is on the increase. This was manifested by the increased attendance at the noonday luncheon, where nearly all tables were filled up by the workers, who prepared their reports while dining.

When the reports were made the total was several hundred dollars, but it was evident that some of the larger subscriptions were being held back for a day or two, and within the next two or three days there is expected to be a big jump in the figures.

More than one captain had a smile upon his face during the time the reports were being made, and some good reports are expected to be the outgrowth of the smiles.

Some of the workers have not had time to devote much work to the campaign, but they are making arrangements to devote almost their entire time to raising the funds, so that next week sometime when the campaign will probably end, their efforts will be counted in dollars and cents.

Numerous interesting experiences are related in connection with the campaign, and most of those who have been approached have responded liberally, and have had nothing but words of praise for the work accomplished in the short time the association has been in working order in this city.

One man in making his donation informed the worker who had approached him, that if a Y. M. C. A. had been available at the time he was a boy, that he knew his life would have been far more successful. "I'm not able to give much at present," he said, "but I'm going to give a full week's salary, and I know it will be used in a great cause. I am heart and soul for the Y. M. C. A."

record in many Ohio towns, took the mayor at his word and agreed to leave the city, which he did.

The man's sister, Mrs. Harris, who has been married only a short time, also informed Mayor Coffey that she intended to get a divorce from her husband, whom she accuses of beating her unmercifully.

The woman's name was formerly Dunson, and she has been in the limelight a number of times recently.

PETER BILLIKEN DOES NOT SELL

Peter Billiken, the valuable trotter owned by Warren A. Bacon, did not sell at the Madison Square Garden sale this week, but was bid in by the owner when the price did not exceed $5,000.

Whether he will ship the horse back to this city or to his plantation in Alabama, is not known.

The fact that Peter Billiken was shipped to New York in a private car, with a veterinarian, Dr. V. P. Smith, and the owner, Mr. Bacon, accompanied the animal, attracted widespread attention all over the state. So far as known it is one of the first horses ever shipped from Ohio in such a manner.

WASHINGTON'S OLDEST CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Mr. George Bryan, Sr., known by everybody in this community, and having the distinction of being the oldest male resident of our city, passed quietly to his eternal rest Wednesday morning at five o'clock, at the Bryant home on North North street.

Over two years ago Mr. Bryan suffered a stroke of paralysis and has since been in poor health, only immense vitality and the most devoted care of his family enabling him to attain his advanced age of 85 years. He came of a long-lived family, having two sisters, both octogenarians, Mrs. B. F. Jacobs, of Parrets, 88 years old, and Mrs. Wm. Smith, of this city, 80 years old, who survive him.

He leaves an aged wife and seven children, who were all with him as, after much suffering, he crossed the bar in perfect peace. If Mr. Bryan had lived until Christmas he and his wife would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Bryan was born in Laurel, Delaware, coming to this city when only 5 years of age. Since then, until he retired two years ago, he engaged in his trade of shoe-making. He was a staunch Democrat all his life.

ORDERED TO GET OUT OF THE CITY

After spending the night in the county jail, Bryant was arraigned before Mayor Coffey Wednesday morning, and upon his plea of guilty, he was fined $5 and the costs and ordered to get out of the city and stay out.

Coloring an Abyssinian Bride.

Western brides have an easier time than their Abyssinian sisters. On the occasion of her marriage an Abyssinian bride has to change her skin. From ebony she has to become the color of cafe au lait. To accomplish this the expectant bride is shut up in a room for three months. She is covered with woolen stuff, with the exception of her head. Then they burn certain green and fragrant branches. The fumes which they produce destroy the original skin, and in its place comes the new skin, soft and clear as a baby's.

The Wickedest Bit of Sea.

Nine out of ten travelers would tell inquirers that the roughest piece of water is that cruel stretch in the English channel, and nine out of ten travelers would say what was not true. As a matter of fact, "the wickedest bit of sea" is not in the Dover strait or in yachting, for example, from St. Jean de Luz up to Panillac or across the Mediterranean "race" from Cadiz to Tangier, nor is it in rounding Cape Horn, where there is what sailors call a "true" sea.

The "wickedest sea" is encountered in rounding the Cape of Good Hope for the eastern portion of Cape Colony—London Globe.

In Social Circles

The Browning club, president, Mrs. Kerr in the chair, met last evening with a goodly attendance of members and the Cecilians as visiting guests and also giving to the Browning club the honor and pleasure of a musical program.

Miss Swope, who was appointed secretary for the remainder of the year, gave the minutes of last meeting. Mrs. Carpenter presented a letter from Mrs. Percy Pennypacker, president of the National Federation. She urged the desirability of all the clubs becoming members of the National with a membership of nearly one million, and with a strong and growing interest and force in both public and private life, it aids to broaden the horizon in club work and in the larger field for the accomplishment of a greater good. The club will consider the matter later.

Mrs. Morna Chapman took charge of the department program and welcomed the Cecilian quartet, Mesdames Hughey, Davis, Burgett and Pine, who gave the beautiful choral, "Lake of the Dismal Swamp". The poem is written by Thomas More and the music by Matthews, is weird and plaintive, with the minor key so common in Indian music, often recurring.

Mrs. Nina Craig gave the interpretation and Mrs. Murray was accompanist.

Miss Edith Gardner gave a charming solo, "What the Chimney Sung," Miss Light, accompanist, and Mrs. Carpenter added much pleasure to the evening in her beautiful reading of "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," Mrs. Murray playing a musical accompaniment.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the Cecilians.

The marriage of Miss Madge Putnam, of Frankfort, and Dr. E. W. Breyfogle, of Chillicothe, is recorded in Tuesday's Scioto Gazette, of Chillicothe, as follows:

"Miss Madge Putman and Dr. E. W. Breyfogle, in whose nuptials much interest has been manifested by their many friends, had an extremely quiet wedding Thursday afternoon. They were married at 4:30 o'clock in the Trinity M. E. church parsonage by Rev. Arthur Cherrington, whose mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cherrington, and Mr. Albert Schlegel, witnessed the ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. Breyfogle left shortly after on the N. & W. for Columbus, leaving there this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, on a two weeks honeymoon trip to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. At Boston they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Elliot, the latter having been Miss Mary Tinker, formerly of this city and Frankfort.

After February 28, Dr. and Mrs. Breyfogle will be at home at the Haynes hotel, where they will reside until spring. The doctor, who has been located here for four years, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Breyfogle, prominent residents of Mt.

Sterling. He graduated from Starling Medical college in 1909, and is a member of Theta Nu Epsilon and Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternities. His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Belle Putman of Frankfort, where she is a leader in the social set."

The bride is a beautiful girl, well known in Washington circles and her marriage will elicit good wishes from many friends in this city.

Miss Lizzie Ellen Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Green, gave a crowd of the Freshmen class of the High school a jolly bob-sled ride last night.

Mr. Green's big mule team was put into use.

The crowd had the "eats" with them and had one of the best all-round times in the history of the class.

After the business meeting there was a short but interesting program, followed by an enjoyable social time and refreshments.

MARRIED JANUARY 10 WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE

An unusual divorce case was filed in Probate court Wednesday p. m., when Katy Harris filed petition asking for divorce and alimony from Pearl Harris, whom she wedded in this city on the 10th of January, this year.

The plaintiff, who is represented by J. T. Oatmeal, charges the defendant with extreme cruelty, alleging that on February 16th he struck her with his fist and kicked her, and that he repeated the performance on the 17th, with the result that she was forced to obtain a physician.

In addition to this display of his affection toward her, she avers that Harris has not given her a cent of money since their marriage, and that she has been forced to buy the groceries with her money, and that he forced her to give him money to spend and also to keep a child in Circleville, where Harris is under the jurisdiction of the court in providing for the Circleville child.

Because of this display of love for her, she asks that she be granted a divorce from the defendant, and that reasonable alimony be awarded her. She also asks that the defendant be enjoined from interfering with her in any manner whatsoever.

The woman, whose former name was Dunson, married Harris a short time after the death of her husband, and a short time after she had gotten into trouble in Columbus.

She is the one who filed an affidavit against her brother, Tuesday, charging him with drunkenness, and the fellow was ordered out of town.

LITERACY TEST STAYS IN BILL

Senate Immigration Committee
Will Hazard the Veto.

MEMBERS DISCUSS SITUATION

Disposition Shown to Criticise Chairman Smith, Who Says He Received Information That While the President Did Not Like the Literacy Test, He Would Not Veto the Immigration Bill.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The senate committee on immigration has been disturbed by the unexpected announcement semi-officially that the president will veto the immigration bill if it goes to him containing the literacy test.

There is some disposition among senators to criticize Senator Ellison B. Smith, chairman of the senate committee on immigration, because, it is now contended, he did not attach sufficient importance to the president's views of the literacy feature at the time he conferred with the president concerning the bill.

Chairman Smith said that the president was not pleased with the literacy test in the house bill, but that he would not veto the bill on that account.

There were several conferences later between Chairman Smith and his colleagues on the committee. Senator Dillingham of Vermont, ranking Republican member of the committee and former chairman, was very much surprised at the information from the White House that the president would veto the bill if passed in its present form. He had a talk with Chairman Smith, who insisted that he received the information at his conference with the president that while the president did not like the literacy test, he would not veto the bill on that account.

The president does not consider literacy a test of character, and believes some other means should be devised to prevent undesirable aliens from entering the United States. He told callers that he had given his view to the senate committee and had left it to them to make it public or not, as they chose.

Several members of the committee declare the literacy test will be retained in the bill, notwithstanding prospects of presidential veto.

Tolls Question Causes Friction.

That out of President Wilson's stand in favor of repealing the law exempting coastwise vessels from payment of Panama canal tolls may come the first disagreement between him and his party in congress is indicated here. There is decided opposition in the house to repealing the exemption clause of the canal act. The president will be informed of the situation this afternoon, when he is to have a conference with Representative Underwood, majority leader of the house.

Mr. Underwood, while he has not publicly announced his position, is known to be in favor of the exemption clause as it stands. He has given assurances, however, that he will not oppose the president in the matter of the repeal, but at the same time has indicated that he feels that congress ought not to be expected to reverse its previous action and abrogate a plank in the Baltimore platform until the president has made a clear statement why he wishes the exemption clause repealed.

MAY DELIVER BANDIT TO VILLA

Washington, Feb. 18.—That Maximo Castillo, the Mexican bandit chief, held responsible for the death of 14 Americans on board a train wrecked in the Cumbre tunnel in Chihuahua, may be delivered to General Villa or his authorities, is regarded as probable in view of the intimations that have been given at the state department. Secretary Bryan asked General Villa to capture and punish Castillo for his part in burning trains in the Cumbre tunnel.

SUES GAS COMPANY

Newark, O., Feb. 18.—Phil B. Smythe, former prosecuting attorney, filed suit for alleged damages against the Newark Gas and Fuel company. He declares that from Feb. 8 to 16 the company failed to supply sufficient gas to heat his home or properly prepare his meals and that the gas shortage is responsible for an attack of rheumatism.

SHOOTS HIMSELF

Columbus, O., Feb. 18.—On the pretext of wanting a drink, Leo Musselman, 26, sent his brother down stairs in a local hotel and while he was out of the room shot himself through the chest with a 38-caliber revolver. Physicians at St. Francis hospital do not think he can recover. No reason is given for the attempt at suicide.

$2000 APPENDIX

Dayton, O., Feb. 18.—The value of Henry Schermuly's appendix was fixed at $2,000 by the jury that passed upon the damage suit he brought jointly against the Dayton & Xenia and Ohio Electric traction companies on account of injuries he received as the result of a collision between two cars of the respective lines.

The campaign is to take care of the coming year's budget of $6,000 and the campaign closes in one week.

Some days ago Steubenville carried out such a campaign with the object of raising $12,000, but the campaign closed at the end of the third day with $16,000 secured.

The Springfield Y. M. C. A. has a membership of 1,450 and 300 women and girls daily use the building.

OBERLIN COLLEGE MAKES GOOD SHOWING

The annual report of the Treasurer of Oberlin College shows that the endowment funds and other assets amount to $2,66,080, the estimated value of buildings and equipment is $1,571,788; the aggregate of endowments, buildings and equipment is $4,207,868. During the year just closed the investments of the college yielded the average rate of 5 per cent. The total income exclusive of gifts for new buildings and endowment was $342,764.

Oberlin will add over $196,500 in equipment and improvements within a year. A new Administration Building, erected at the cost of $69,000 as a memorial to Jacob B. Cox of Cincinnati, is well under way. $125,000 is on hand for a new art building, plans for which are now being inspected by the Trustees. Another outlay is that of $2,500 a year for five years, given by Charles H. Hall of Buffalo, to beautify the campus.

WILSON DENIES MAIL HELD UP

Washington, Feb. 18.—President Wilson has written a letter warmly defending Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, against reports that have been circulated in some Protestant quarters to the effect that it is impossible to get communications relating to the activities of the Roman Catholic church by Mr. Tumulty to the president's own desk. The president brands any such impression as "absurd and absolutely false," and says Mr. Tumulty a high compliment for his efficiency and impartiality in all matters.

CASTILLO AND GANG
NOW UNDER ARREST*Bandit Chief Seized By United

Preferred Flight Into American Territory Rather Than Capture at the Hands of Villa's Men—Outlaw Chief
Denies Responsibility For the Cumbre Tunnel Horror and Claims He's Not a Bandit.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 18.—Maximo
Castillo is a prisoner of the Ninth United States cavalry in New Mexico.
The arrest of the bandit and six of his men was reported from the Alamo
Nueco wireless tower of the United States to the commanding officer of the Ninth cavalry at Hatchita, N. M.

The capture of the bandits took place near Alamo Nueco ranch, west of El Paso, on the New Mexican line, after the bandits had crossed into New Mexico. Closely pressed by the Mexican troops to the border, as a last resort Castillo, like others before him, chose flight into American territory rather than capture at the hands of the rebels. The rest of the bandit band is reported to be on American soil near Dog Springs, N. M., which is just north of that point of Palomas ranch in Mexico where the band spent Monday night.

A troop of cavalry was sent from Hatchita to effect their arrest. Lieutenant Rothwell, in command of a detachment of Troop A, Ninth cavalry (negro), made the arrest of the Castillo band. The leader was identified, the lieutenant reported in his message, by several ranchmen in that section well acquainted with Castillo.

Castillo was reported last week as captured by Villa's men, and the day following he was reported executed by them, but General Villa himself never had official confirmation and refused "to believe the goods." When told that the United States had made Castillo a prisoner Villa said: "If the United States will turn him over to me they will be relieved of the expense of feeding him."

A letter from Castillo, written last week, reached El Paso, in which he denies responsibility for the Cumbre tunnel disaster, in which 51 people

VIEWS OF OTHERSTHE GORE CASE.

The claim of United States Senator Thos. P. Gore that the charges made against him by Minnie Bond are the result of a conspiracy to discredit him politically should be thoroughly investigated. No penalty is too severe for assassins of character and any charges made against public men should be the subjects for a thorough and searching probe.

In spite of what the pessimists say the most valuable possession of any man can stand before men, and be acclaimed as honest, capable and honorable, his life has been a success even though he has failed to amass great sums of money or to reach the high places in the land. Conversely, if he gains his millions or reaches his places of pride and power at the cost of his honor and reputation, he is a failure and his name will go down with his death disgraced and a by-word of reproach.

Senator Gore has reached the heights and his record is thus far clean and unspotted. Blind, he has accomplished that which more fortunate men have struggled for in vain. His place, however, is sought by the ambitious and it is within the bounds of reason that such a plot as he alleges was formed against him.

The charges made by the woman and the claims of the senator should be given a thorough airing. The laws prescribe a punishment if Gore is the monster which the woman pictures him. The civil courts and the criminal statutes both provide means of redress and punishment, and if the senator is guilty, he should be punished. If the charges are a plot to discredit him, every person involved in it, from the woman who gave herself as the tool to the crafty politician who would profit by her act, should be punished and disgraced. America has no place for the liar, the traitor and the conspirator, and such plots savor more of the old world than of the new. The frame-up of the police of the big cities should not be permitted to extend its coils further, and a thorough probing and prompt action in the Gore case may prevent rural injustice being done in the future.—Springfield Sun.

KEIFER RETURNS FROM NEW YORK

Springfield, O., Feb. 18.—After attending a conference at New York held for issuance of a formal call for a third national peace conference at The Hague in 1915, General J. Warren Keifer, returned to Springfield yesterday.

The Hague Peace conference is entirely separate from the International Union of Peace at which General Keifer represented the United States at Brussels in 1910.

At the head of the committee are Andrew D. White and Joseph H. Choate, chairman respectively of the American delegations to the first and second Hague conferences.

This conference will be the first called by the United States. The first, held in 1899, was called by the Czar of Russia. President Roosevelt in 1907 was expected to call the second Hague conference but let Russia again have the honor upon special request of the Czar, following conclusion of the Russian-Japanese war.

SCARED WITNESSES

New York, Feb. 18.—Charges that Assistant United States District Attorney Claude A. Thompson intimidated and kept out of the country material witnesses, are the basis for a motion for a new trial in the case of Albert Freeman, who with Julian Hawthorn and Dr. William J. Morton, was convicted on March 14, 1913, of using the mails to defraud. Freeman is out on bail of $150,000 pending an appeal in his case. Affidavits set forth allegations that Thompson scared Joseph McNulty, Dr. Robert Bell and Professor R. C. Harris into absence and silence by threatening to have them indicted as equally guilty with Freeman, Hawthorn and Morton in persuading the unwary to invest their money in mining properties of no value.

ANNUAL INSPECTION PYTHIAN SISTERS

Tuesday night witnessed the annual inspection of the Washington Temple No. 380, of the Pythian Sisters at the K. of P. Castle.

There was a large attendance and the occasion was of marked interest and pleasure.

Mrs. Lillian Howard, District Deputy Grand Chief, of Lancaster, acted as inspecting officer, and the fact that the exceptionally high grade of 95 was given to the entire exemplification of the work spoke beyond words of its excellence.

Several new features, especially satisfactory, were incorporated.

Mrs. John Wilson, Past Chief substituted for Margaret DeWees, most excellent chief, in filling the chair for the evening's work. The initiatory work was put on under the initiation staff, in charge of Mrs. Jesse Blackmore, Past Chief.

Three new candidates, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hyer and Miss Ruth Richardson, took the work.

Hearty approval was given to the work of the Degree Staff under its captain, Miss Emma Wilson.

An elegant two course banquet was served in the banquet hall at the close of the evening.

REFUSED 15C FARE PAYS $15.60 FINE

A colored man who works for a Selden farmer was in this city a day or two ago and before he left for home on the evening train he became intoxicated. He later boarded the train for home.

When the conductor approached him for his fare which was 15 cents, the man flatly refused to pay. The conductor said nothing, but carried the man to Sabina where an officer placed him under arrest and before the old colored man got out of his trouble he was forced to pay a fine of $15.60 for his little ride.

Within the next week or ten days the Fayette County Humane Society will hold its annual session for the purpose of reorganizing for the year.

No meeting of the entire society has been held since last February, but at the coming session arrangements will probably be made for broadening out and increasing the membership of the society, as well as putting more "ginger" into the work.

The annual report of Human Officer Gooder will be one of the interesting events of the approaching meeting.
